A copy of the Thames Valley Police formal objection is attached at Appendix "E".

Background

Following the application submission and concerns by the Licensing Authority and Thames Valley Police about the previous history of the premises and locality, a mediation meeting took place on 16th December 2010 between the applicant, Jim Ferguson, and Mrs Sagar to review the application and to ensure that if the premises were to open that none of the four licensing objectives would be undermined.

In addition the Licensing Authority and Thames Valley Police had concerns in the way the application had been written as there were a number of discrepancies with opening times and seasonal variations.

Following this meeting, Mr Ferguson forwarded to the applicant an official response with recommended amendments to the application for the applicant to consider and agree but with the proviso that if the proposed amendments were not accepted Thames Valley Police would formally object to the application which they have done. Both Mr Ferguson and Mrs Sagar advised Mr Hussain to seek independent legal advice with regard to the application and recommendations.

The Thames Valley Police response with the recommended amendments is attached at Appendix "D".

2. Representations Received

The Licensing Authority received formal notice from the applicant on 12th January 2011 refusing the recommended amendments by Thames Valley Police, attached at Appendix "D". Therefore the formal objection as previously detailed has been made by Thames Valley Police and is attached at Appendix "E".

3. The Sub-Committee must have regard to:

- The Licensing Act 2003
- The Guidance given by the Secretary of State – The Sub-Committee can decide not to follow the Guidance if it has good reason to do so
- The Council's Statement of Licensing Policy. The Sub-Committee must have regard to the Council's policy but may depart from it if it has good reason to do so.
- The overriding principle is that each application will be determined on its merits.

Human Rights Act 1998

Article 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 applies:

Article 6 – That in the determination of civil rights and obligations everyone is entitled to a fair and public hearing within a reasonable time by an independent and impartial tribunal established by law.

5. Options Available

The Sub-Committee may

1. grant the application as it stands in which case it would be issued subject to the relevant mandatory conditions and conditions consistent with the applicant's operating schedule.
2. grant the application subject to further conditions which are reasonable, proportionate and necessary in order to meet one or more of the four licensing objectives i.e. the prevention of crime and disorder; public safety; the prevention of public nuisance; and the protection of children from harm.
3. refuse the application.

6. Appeals

Any party to the hearing may appeal against a decision of the licensing authority by giving notice to the Clerk to the Magistrates within 21 days of being notified of the decision.

Subject: RABZ NIGHT CLUB

Dear Mr Sims

On 6th January 2011 following a mediation meeting by the Police and the Licensing Authority in relation to the application for Rabz Night Club, 305 High Street, Slough, I sent to Mr Majad, the applicant, a copy of my formal response detailing a number of recommended conditions as discussed with and to be agreed by him. I did outline in the response that the Police not object to the application "Providing the following conditions are attached to the licence" (as detailed in my response to him).

I have now been notified that Mr Majad has now refused to accept the recommended conditions and I therefore ask that my original response on 6th January be accepted as formal objections to the application.
