

NASACRE

LOCAL AUTHORITY SUPPORT FOR SACREs

1. As part of their responsibilities to ensure high quality RE and collective worship for all pupils the Local Authority has a statutory responsibility to establish a SACRE and an agreed syllabus conference (ASC), and also has statutory responsibilities in supporting both bodies
2. 'The L(E)A's duty to convene a conference or to establish a SACRE implies providing sufficient funds for these bodies to perform their duties.' ERA 1988 s11 (1)
3. 'Sufficient funding' for the SACRE may vary depending on factors such as the size and faith diversity of different LAs but should not be less than:
 - Clerking support for 3-6 SACRE meetings per year,
 - Specialist RE advice and back up support for 3-6 SACRE meetings per year,
 - Specialist RE advice and back up support for preparation and publication of the SACRE annual report.

Local Authorities have a statutory duty to ensure that the agreed syllabus is reviewed every five years. The LA is responsible for providing satisfactory funding for this task, including writing, consulting, publishing and providing necessary training. In addition, the SACRE has the power, rarely used, to require the LA to review its agreed syllabus within the five year period as stated in ERA 1988 s11 (7).

4. Sufficient funding for the ASC within a five year cycle may vary for reasons similar to those leading to variation in funding of SACREs in different LAs but should not be less than:
 - Clerking support for 3-6 ASC meetings,
 - Specialist RE advice and back up support for the 3-6 ASC meetings,
 - Specialist RE advice and back up support for reviewing the agreed syllabus, and preparing, and publishing the reviewed syllabus and disseminating it across the LA schools. 5-10 days within a five year cycle.
5. The statutory duty is reaffirmed in the Religious Education guidance in English schools: Non-statutory guidance 2010 which states, "An LA should fund and support a SACRE and an ASC satisfactorily in line with the duty to constitute or convene each of these bodies and to enable them effectively to carry out their function."

6. In addition to these central statutory duties an effective SACRE should

- Monitor standards and achievement in RE in the LA through agreed school visits and analysis of appropriate data including external examination results,
- Have a clear, realistic development plan which raises both the profile of, and achievement in RE,
- Enrich the quality of RE through specific projects e.g. raising boy's attainment,
- Build strong and positive partnerships with schools, colleges and universities, local faith and belief communities and keep informed of key national developments in RE,
- Provide effective support on the effective teaching of RE including planning, methods and resources.

All of these require that a specialist RE professional is in place; is well informed and qualified and has the capacity to manage these actions with the SACRE.

7. As with members of school governing bodies, some provision should be made for the induction, training and development of SACRE members and for expenses to attend meetings.

KEY QUESTION FOR LAs

- Does the professional, administrative and financial support for SACRE enable it to carry out its duties effectively and improve learning and achievement in RE?

KEY QUESTION FOR SACREs

- How does the work of SACRE improve learning and achievement in RE?
