

Religious Education to Inspire and Make an Impact

Date: Monday, 31st March 2014

Time: 9.00 am - 3.30 pm

Venue: Moor Hall Conference Centre (SL6 9QH <http://www.moorhallconferences.com/>)

Course Leader: Stephen Pett <http://www.retoday.org.uk/benefit/stephen-pett> and Fiona Moss <http://www.retoday.org.uk/benefit/fiona-moss>

The Royal Borough of Windsor and Maidenhead SACRE is offering a rare opportunity for teachers of RE in primary and secondary schools to attend an exciting and affordable RE conference led by two of the inspirational Advisers from the RE Today team.

Outline of the day:

9.00 Gather for coffee and bacon rolls

9.20 Welcome

9.30 Keynote 1: Having an impact in RE – promoting enquiry and planning for progress

10.30 Coffee

10.45 Workshop 1

Primary: How to be a great RE subject leader. How to monitor, evaluate and improve RE in the primary school

Secondary: challenging RE for 11-16s. At least six flexible classroom strategies to raise achievement and develop the spirit.

12.15 LUNCH

1.15 Workshop 2

Primary: Planning a great day/week. Themes, resources and advice on constructing RE days to inspire, inform and engage children in the primary school

Secondary: Deepening learning with 11-16s - Questions of values, virtues and ways of living. Active learning strategies and resources to develop pupils' understanding and evaluative skills

2.30 Keynote 2: RE to inspire pupils and teachers

3.30 Plenary and close of conference

Cost: £50 per person for RBWM schools and £90 per person for schools outside the Borough.

Places at this conference are in the first instance reserved for teachers in schools within the RBWM area. However, any places left vacant after the holiday in February (Friday 21st February) will be made available to schools in neighbouring authorities.

To book your place on this conference please email Elaine Norstrom:

Elaine.norstrom@rbwm.gov.uk or call 01628 796926