

Appendix C Outline of new Wellbeing Strategy

The proposed outline structure below reflects comments received during the consultation.

1. Foreword – Chair of the Wellbeing Board

2. Vision

To make Slough a place where people are proud to live, where diversity is celebrated and where residents can enjoy lead safe, fulfilling, prosperous and healthy lives.

3. Top three priorities for the first year of the Strategy

- 1) Increasing healthy life expectancy - directly links to deprivation, differences in gender and between wards, comparison with neighbours, life chances, poor air quality, poor health outcomes
- 2) Improving mental health and wellbeing - because it runs through each of the lifecycle categories identified in the consultation i.e. start well, live well and age well.
- 3) Housing - links to health, social mobility, community cohesion and resilience, fuel poverty, community safety, climate change

4. Aims

- Improve resident's health and wellbeing
- Reduce gaps in life expectancy across Slough
- Focus on the wider determinants of health such as education and training, housing, the economy and employment
- Commission better, more integrated and efficient-health and-social care services

5. Key principles

- Focus on prevention, early intervention and health promotion
- Provide opportunities for individual and community empowerment and volunteering
- Promote a culture of self care and personal responsibility
- Achieve more for less, making the very best use of resources
- Engage in an on-going dialogue with our residents, communities and patients

6. Map of key partnership groups and strategies

To avoid duplication we will map who is doing what and where so that there are clear lines of accountability.

7. Evidence and performance

We will use the Slough Story and JSNA to set out what the evidence is telling us. In terms of managing performance we will need to be careful not to make an industry of this and not duplicate work being done elsewhere to measure progress. Some suggestions for how we might do this are set out in the table below.

8. Making a difference at key stages of people's lives

We will develop the matrix below to ensure we are confident that the Board is able to add value and that our partners are able to demonstrate how we are collectively improving people's lives.
