In addition to the metered or pre-agreed fare:
EXTRA ROAD USEAGE CHARGES MAY BE PAYABLE BY THE PASSENGER(S) DEPENDING ON THE JOURNEY PICK-UP AND/OR DROP-OFF POINT
Extra charge examples: airport charges, congestion charges, emission charges and toll road fees
PASSENGER / DRIVER NOTE: Single vehicles which are licenced for 5 or more passengers and hired by at least 5 adult passengers are charged at fare rates 1B, 2B, 3B, 4B or 5B. All other hires (4 or fewer adult passengers) are charged at the standard rate fare 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5. This is only for vehicles licenced to carry 5 or more passengers. If carrying 4 adult passengers the "add only for 4 adult passengers fare" is applicable. Vehicles licenced for maximum 4 passengers are only metered at the standard rate fares 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5.
<small>An adult passenger is classed as an individual aged 18 or over and does not have special educational needs i.e. a carer / support assistant to accompany the individual passenger, unless they have the authorisation of an adult (18+) with the capability to contract. For the purposes of clarity to the Disability Discrimination Act any individual with a defined disability travelling with a carer / support assistant this hire must be treated as one (1) passenger. Children under the age of 18 are permitted to hire, the fare structure must be explained before hiring. Reasonable adjustments must be made by the driver.</small>
