Advocacy in Slough

Advocacy in Slough is a service provided by independent organisations, working in partnership to provide a range of independent advocacy services to residents of Slough.

What is Advocacy?

Advocacy is taking action to help people say what they want, secure their rights, represent their interests and obtain services they need.

Advocates and advocacy schemes work in partnership with the people they support and take their side. Advocacy promotes social inclusion, equality and social justice.

Advocacy in Slough is free, confidential and independent

Funded by:

Surrey Disabled People's Partnership, with our partner organisations provide the following Advocacy support for residents of Slough...
